Biographical Note

The DeCosta Seabrook Family Collection, 1882-1994 consists of the papers of several family members, chiefly Miriam DeCosta Seabrook (1896-1992). Miriam DeCosta Seabrook was a career educator and community leader in Charleston, SC. Born Miriam Florella DeCosta on July 30, 1896 in Charleston, SC, Miriam was the fifth child of Anna and Benjamin DeCosta. She attended Avery Normal School and graduated in 1914. Miriam was teaching school when she met Dr. Herbert Ulysses Seabrook, a physician who was practicing in Charleston. They married in 1923 and had their son, Dr. Herbert Ulysses Seabrook Jr., in 1924.

As an educator, Miriam receiving a B.S. from State Teachers College, Montgomery, AL, in 1946, and a M.A. from State A & M College, Orangeburg, SC in 1953. She taught school for the Charleston Negro School District, and later Charleston County District 20. Miriam retired from teaching in 1961, but was rehired for one addition year, 1963-64.

Miriam DeCosta Seabrook was active in community organizations and clubs, including: Centenary United Methodist Church; the Charleston Medical, Dental & Pharmaceutical Auxiliary; Entre Nous Bridge Club; Future Teachers of America; and Links, Inc.

Miriam DeCosta Seabrook died in Aug 1992. In her memory, a window was dedicated at Centenary United Methodist Church in Sep 1993.

Also contained in the collection are the papers of other family members, including: Elizabeth DeCosta Sartor, Raymond “Ramon” DeCosta, and both Dr. Herbert Ulysses Seabrook Sr. and Jr.

Scope and Content Note

The DeCosta Seabrook Collection, 3.5 linear feet, is arranged in five series: General Papers, Family Papers, Topical Files, Photographs, and Miscellany.

General Papers include correspondence relating to personal finances and business that did not relate to other series within the collection.

Family Papers, 1917 to 1994, consist of correspondence between Miriam DeCosta Seabrook and family, as well as the personal papers of some family members. The series is arranged into nine sub-series: DeCosta Family; Anna “Mamma” DeCosta; Dr. Miriam DeCosta-Willis and Family; Elizabeth DeCosta Sartor; Dr. Herbert Ulysses Seabrook Papers; Dr. Herbert Ulysses Seabrook and Miriam DeCosta Seabrook Family; Dr. Herbert Ulysses Seabrook Jr.; Kenneth Seabrook; and Memorial Funds for Dr. Herbert Ulysses Seabrook, Sr. and Jr.

DeCosta Family, consists of correspondence between Miriam DeCosta Seabrook and DeCosta siblings without their own sub-series. EDH, RTD, FAD, and HAD.

Anna Theresa Harrenburg DeCosta “Momma,” consists of correspondence between Miriam DeCosta Seabrook and her mother. A poem written in her memory is included.

Dr. Miriam DeCosta-Willis and Family, consists of correspondence between Miriam DeCosta Seabrook and Miriam Decosta-Willis, as well as her personal papers.

Elizabeth DeCosta Sartor, consists of correspondence between Miriam DeCosta Seabrook and Elizabeth DeCosta Sartor, her personal papers and papers regarding the settlement of her estate. This sub-series details Elizabeth DeCosta Sartor’s teaching career and her continuing education.
Dr. Herbert Ulysses DeCosta, consists of correspondence between Miriam DeCosta Seabrook and her husband, his personal papers, and the settlement of his estate. Correspondence written to/from Miriam and Herbert as a married couple are in a separate sub-series. This sub-series documents their courtship, travels, and Herbert’s 1937 treatment for cancer.

Dr. Herbert Ulysses DeCosta and Miriam DeCosta Seabrook, consists of correspondence between Miriam and Herbert, and friends and family. Correspondence is in regards to their 1923 marriage, and their friendship with Lillian and William Lawrence, an African-American couple living in Paris, France.

Dr. Herbert Ulysses Seabrook Jr., consists of correspondence between Miriam DeCosta Seabrook and her son, his personal papers and the settlement of his estate. His service in the Navy, from 1944-1946, is also detailed.

Kenneth Seabrook, consists of correspondence between Miriam DeCosta Seabrook and her grandson and his caregivers.

Memorial Funds for Drs. Herbert Ulysses Seabrook, Sr. and Jr., consists of correspondence relating to the creation and maintenance of memorial funds for Miriam’s husband and son, especially the fund at St. Margaret’s Episcopal Church in Dayton, OH.

Topical Files, 1927-1988, document areas of Miriam DeCosta Seabrook’s life, including: involvement in community organizations, the management of properties, and travel.

Organizations Files, 1927-1988, document Miriam’s personal involvement with organizations, including: Centenary United Methodist Church; Charleston Medical, Dental, & Pharmaceutical Auxiliary; Delta Sorority; Entre Nous Bridge Club; Future Teachers of America; and Links, Inc.

Property Files, 1945-1983, consists of correspondence and papers relating to the care and maintenance of four properties owned by Miriam DeCosta Seabrook: 37 Ashe St., Charleston; lots in Lincolnville; 6 Poinsette St., Charleston; and 23 Wescoat Ct., Charleston.

Travel, European Vacation, 1957, consists of correspondence, memorabilia and travel documents relating to a vacation Miriam took with her sister, Daisy DeCosta Caffey, in the summer of 1957.

Photographs are arranged into four groups: Loose Photos; the Raymond “Ramon” DeCosta Photo Album; Scrapbooks; and Tintypes. These photos document the history of the DeCosta and Seabrook Families; especially Miriam DeCosta Seabrook’s involvement with her family and her involvement in community organizations.

The Raymond “Ramon” DeCosta Photo Album was created by Raymond DeCosta, and documents his military service, his work on a cruise ship and his life in New York. Of interest is a baby picture of Raymond taken by MacBeth Studios. Raymond DeCosta died in 1941, at which time Miriam came into possession of the album.

Scrapbooks, c. 1910s-1980s, consist of four collections of photos grouped together by Miriam DeCosta Seabrook. In many cases these photos are duplicated in the loose photos series. Scrapbook 4, c. 1910s-1930s, contains photos of friends and family, with handwritten notations and inscriptions by Miriam DeCosta Seabrook. This album was created on black paper, and the photos have remained attached. Please use the photocopy of the album.
